President Talks to Girls At Beginning Of College

Bryn Mawr Not a Sanitarium or Matrimonial Bureau.

Philadelphia, Oct. 4.—When Bryn Mawr college opened its doors President M. Carey Thomas told the young women who had assembled at the opening that "girls who were idlers and who had entered the institution for a good time or because their family physician had advised that Bryn Mawr was the best cure for nervous girls or thinking they might find a husband, had better stop before they began their studies, for they would be weeded out, and speedily, too; as the college was not the place that they were looking for."

Greeks Sail For Home

Steamer's Departure Delayed to Take on Reserves and Volunteers.

New York, Oct. 4.—Demetrius N. Bettassi, the Greek consul general, delayed the departure of the Greek steamship Macedonia until Saturday in order that she might take on board more men who are anxious to respond to their country's call to arms for the impending conflict with Turkey.

There were about 1,000 reservists and volunteers aboard, and it is expected that when she puts out on Saturday this number will have been increased up to the number allowed by the United States government.

Awful Fall Two Thousand Feet Plunge

Aviator's Fatal Plunge Witnessed by Thousands of People.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 4.—Plunging from a height of nearly 2,000 feet in a Curtiss biplane, Charles F. Walsh of San Diego, Cal., was dashed to death in the sight of 5,000 people at the interstate fair. The breaking of the lower plane as Walsh was beginning a circular downward flight was the cause of the accident. Walsh breathing faintly when they first reached him, but died almost immediately afterward. The flight of Walsh was undertaken in the face of a fairly brisk breeze.

Fast Train Jumps Track Takes Fire Wreck Burns

Disaster Overtakes a Crowded Passenger Train.

FIFTY PERSONS KILLED OR HURT

Ill-Fated Train Was the Second Section of the Boston Express, Bound For New York, and the Accident Occurred Near a Connecticut Town. Most of the Killed Burned to Death. Details of the Accident.

Westport, Conn., Oct. 4.—At least 10 persons were killed, most of them burned to death, and about 40 injured, 20 of them seriously, when the second section of the Boston express jumped the tracks of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, a short distance west of the station.

The dead may equal twice 10, the missing may be many more than reported, for the cars which were in the wreck are burned to ashes. They were wooden cars, albeit parlor cars of ancient construction, and the hot coals of the engine over which they were jammed, exploding the pintch with which they were lighted, caused the fire to spread from one end of the affected train to the other almost in a twinkling. As it turned out, only the parlor cars were destroyed, and only those riding in the parlor cars were burned or injured, with the exception of the engineer, fireman and other trainmen, one mail clerk and his assistant. The passengers of the still flimsier day coaches escaped with only superficial bruises and jars.

The disaster occurred at 5:25 p. m. The train was the second section of No. 53, Boston to New York. It was filled to overflowing.

The train was just 12 minutes late when it reached Bridgeport, and George W. Clark, the engineer, left with the idea of making up the time before reaching New York. He increased the speed at once and by the time he was well clear of Bridgeport he was traveling very close to 60 miles an hour. To the west of the station about 200 yards the old Boston post road passes under the tracks with other streets of the town, and that elevates the tracks about 25 feet above the street level, this height between the streets being filled with sand, gravel and stonework.

Ditched at Cross-Over. The ill-fated train had shot past the station and had struck the bridge. Just ahead of it was the signal which warned the engineer to slow down so that there might be no accident at the cross-over. Apparently this was never heeded. There was no slowing down, and as the little front wheels of the engine struck the first frog they were slipped to one side, the great drivers were wrenched off the rail and the big engine went plowing over the roadbed with a roar and a jolt that was communicated throughout the train.

It was all over in less than a half-minute, but in that time the engine had plowed along the dirt for 150 yards, dug its nose into the side of the embankment, catapulted its tender clear over it, slicing off the top of the cab, which killed the engineer and fireman.

Four parlor cars, heaped up in a mass of wreckage, immediately burst into flames, which imprisoned and killed some of the passengers. Identified dead: G. L. Clark, engineer; J. J. Moker, fireman; Mrs. James Brady of Albany, N. Y.; two children of Mrs. Brady. There are three unidentified bodies, two of them women.

JUDGE DUELL ON THE STAND

Pierpont Morgan, New York Banker, Admits Contributing $150,000 to the Republican War Chest, but Declares He Expected No Favors In Return. Denies Concerted Action on Part of Financiers to Elect Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Charles H. Duell, who in 1904 was assistant treasurer of the Republican national committee, testified before the Clapp committee that he knew of no contribution by John D. Archbold under that name. He knew there had been "several contributions of $100,000 each and that the insurance companies each had given $50,000."

"Did you know any members of the Standard Oil company beside Mr. Archbold who contributed to the 1904 campaign?" asked Chairman Clapp. "I think H. H. Rogers contributed, but I do not know the amount."

Judge Duell said contributions in 1904 were collected by E. T. Stotesbury in Philadelphia, Charles G. Dawes in Chicago, George Von L. Meyer, now secretary of the navy, in New England, and Andrew Mills in New York.

Other contributors he remembered were: Dr. David Jayne Hill, former ambassador to Germany, $2,000; Whitelaw Reid, ambassador to Great Britain, $10,000; United States Steel corporation, $10,000.

"Was there ever any refund to Rogers or Archbold or the Standard Oil company?" asked Senator Pomerene. "I never heard of any refund, and I never heard of any receipt," said Judge Duell.

Morgan's Contributions.

J. Pierpont Morgan, testifying before the committee, said he contributed $150,000 to the 1904 campaign fund. He said that $50,000 of this amount was part of the $240,000 fund dumped by the late E. H. Harriman into New York state on the eve of the election, and which, according to the late railroad man's boast, changed 50,000 votes in the Empire state.

Mr. Morgan made the statement that, after having contributed $100,000, he had been solicited to give not only this additional $50,000, but the entire $240,000 which later was turned over to the campaign committee by Mr. Harriman.

Mr. Morgan asserted that no contribution had ever been given by his firm or himself with the idea of securing any favors thereby. He was especially interested in the 1904 campaign, he said, solely for the welfare of the country and the people at large.

Colonel Roosevelt has denied emphatically that he asked Harriman to raise any money or that the national ticket was in jeopardy in New York state. He has charged that Harriman collected the money at the solicitation of State Chairman Odell to save the state ticket and that the fund never entered into the national committee's accounts.

Mr. Morgan testified that in the solicitation for the $50,000 contribution he was given to understand plainly that the offices of the national as well as the state organization were alarmed over the outlook in New York state. No attempt was made to draw any distinction between the Roosevelt and Higgins chances in the Empire state.

Mr. Morgan contributed $30,000 to the Taft 1908 campaign fund. Mr. Morgan denied that there had been any concerted action on the part of the big financial interests in 1904 to bring about the election of Roosevelt.

Chief O'Neill Behind Barricade.

Columbus, O., Oct. 4.—The circuit court of this district upheld the common pleas court in sustaining the right of Charles E. Carter, deposed chief of police, to the position. Mayor Karb's attorneys then announced they would file a petition in error to the supreme court. Meanwhile Chief of Police Thomas F. O'Neill resumed his military barricade at headquarters to prevent a forcible seizure by Carter.

Lima, O., Oct. 4.—Dr. J. C. M. Floyd, president of the Ohio State Medical association, addressed the opening session of the sixty-eighth annual convention of the Northwestern Ohio Medical association. One hundred and fifty medical men are present.

FIVE OTHERS BADLY INJURED

Accident Occurred at "Dead Man's Crossing" in Wilkinsburg, a Pittsburgh Suburb. Where in the Past Ten Years Fifty-five Persons Have Been Killed—One of the Victims Hit by the Flying Automobile.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 4.—"Dead Man's Crossing" on the Pennsylvania railroad, in Wilkinsburg, a suburb, added to its grim record when five persons were killed and five injured in a collision between a limited train and an automobile. In the last 10 years 55 persons have been killed at the Rebecca street or "Dead Man's Crossing," where the latest tragedy happened.

The dead: Rev. W. L. Nicholson, 40, pastor First Presbyterian church, Wilkinsburg; Charles Nicholson, 4, son of Dr. Nicholson; John E. Beck of Wilmerding, superintendent Westinghouse Airbrake company; Mrs. Mary Diamond, Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Terese Polonio, Wilkinsburg, mother of Mrs. Diamond.

Elizabeth Polonio and three children of Mrs. Diamond are in Columbia hospital. The children will recover. An Italian track worker, struck by flying debris, was taken to the hospital.

The accident was witnessed by thousands who are in Wilkinsburg to celebrate the semi-centennial of the town. The crossing is right at the station, where hundreds stood opposite the reviewing stand watching a parade. Mr. Beck was taking Rev. Nicholson and his son out for a ride. Mrs. Nicholson declined to go after once getting into the car.

Beck drove to the crossing, got a signal to stop and, not being able to check the car before it reached the tracks, tried to back off when he saw the approaching train. His engine went dead and the train, going 50 miles an hour, hit the auto, hurling the occupants high in the air. The twisted auto was catapulted down the station platform. It struck Mrs. Diamond and killed her instantly. A babe she had in her arms was unhurt. Mrs. Polonio was carrying an infant and had two others in a go-cart. The woman's skull was crushed against the brick walls of the depot. The children were not seriously hurt.

Becker Men Now Want Witnesses Indicted, Too

New York, Oct. 4.—Counsel for Lieutenant Becker have decided to attack the district attorney's course in promising to protect and in failing to indict the main witnesses against the accused policeman.

As the date of the Becker trial draws near, the Becker lawyers are centering their fire upon Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepps in an effort to discredit thoroughly their testimony. John F. McIntyre, who is directing Lieutenant Becker's defense, announced that he would appeal to the courts to forbid District Attorney Whitman to place Rose, Webber, Vallon and Schepps on the witness stand before they were indicted as murderers of Herman Rosenthal.

New York, Oct. 4.—The new $50,000,000 tobacco company being formed by Daniel G. Reid is to be incorporated and have its organization completed in a short time. J. D. White of the law firm of White & Chase, acting for Mr. Reid, said that the new company would not be incorporated in New York. The report is current in the financial district that Henry C. Frick will be actively associated with Mr. Reid in the company.

HERE you see Harry Horowitz and Louis Rosenberg. Not bad looking chaps, eh? Well, the first named has the alias of "Gyp the Blood," and the other is called "Lefty Louie." They are both in the Toms. In New York, held without bail on the charge of being in the party that shot Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, to death in front of the Hotel Metropole a few weeks ago. They dodged the police for more than a month and were finally caught in a flat in Brooklyn, where they were living with their brides of a few months. Some skeptical individuals believe that the police could have found the youthful suspects quicker if they had been so minded. As for "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," they deny being concerned in the taking off of Rosenthal and say they went into retirement merely as a measure of safety because they knew they were accused.

TAFT ELECTOR BARRED OUT

California Supreme Court Renders Important Decision.

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—Taft electors were barred from the ticket by the state supreme court, and as the Taft managers failed to prepare petitions, it looks as though all the regular Republicans in California will be disfranchised.

In giving his decision Chief Justice Beatty said the state primary law was "a very bad law." He declared the practical application of this statute had disfranchised one-third the voters of the state.

The court ruled that its jurisdiction was limited to passing upon the constitutionality of the state laws relating to the selection of presidential electors at state conventions. Whether the convention had ceased to be Republican is a matter, the court ruled, outside its jurisdiction, and which it was powerless to decide.

The Republican leaders are talking of bringing suit to test the constitutionality of the new primary law. If the supreme court should declare this law unconstitutional, then the Roosevelt electors would be off the ticket.

THE JUDICIARY LAW.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has held, wisely it seems to the people generally throughout the state, that the Green non-partisan judicial ballot law is constitutional. The Court by the decision which was announced on Thursday, holds simply that, in enacting that law, the legislature did not fracture any constitutional provisions and did not exceed any of the limitations imposed on it by the constitution.

Most people in the state never entertained any doubt on that proposition.

The people have insisted for years that, if possible, the judiciary should be taken out of politics.

Under the old law which required that the names of candidates for judicial positions should be placed on the party ticket under the party emblem, instances have not been rare enough when unfit men were swept into judicial positions on party landslides, or shipped in by virtue of a heavy dominant party vote.

These regrettable election accidents occurred entirely too frequently to suit the people of the state, and not a few regular party nominees were defeated by independent candidates. The frequency with which the people sought insurance from the curse of unfit men in judicial position by resort to the Independent ticket was but the forerunner of a demand that all candidates for judicial positions, should have their names printed on a separate ballot on which was absent all party designation and on which the names of the candidates were to be rotated.

This demand grew to such proportions that planks favoring it were placed in party platforms and the enactment of the Green non-partisan ballot law, as it is called, followed.

Upon just what legal technicality it could be claimed that the constitution of the state forbade the enforcement of a law which comes nearer than anything yet suggested to taking the judiciary out of politics, is a matter in which the average citizen is not interested.

Nearly every conscientious voter in the state believes it a good law and would have been disappointed in a decision which denied to the people the right to have such a law.

It is a little singular that the Supreme Court divided, three for holding the law constitutional and two for holding it invalid. It is worthy of note too that the three were Democrats and the two were Republicans.

This year when the trend seems to be toward the Democratic standards it would seem that selfish political interest would have dictated just the reverse of the division which occurred.

It would seem that neither the two members of the Court who concluded that the law was invalid nor the three who held it valid were influenced by selfish political motives.

The ruling meets with popular approval. The people do not take kindly, these days, to having the courts limit too rigidly their power to legislate.

Respect and Obedience Are Unknown to Our Youth

By Dr. WILLIAM H. TOLMAN,

Director of the American Museum of Safety

I SENT my son abroad to be educated because there are three things he can learn there that he can't learn here—to study, to be respectful and to be obedient. RESPECT AND OBEDIENCE PARTICULARLY ARE UNKNOWN TO THE AMERICAN YOUTH.

BY THE THOROUGHNESS OF THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM ABROAD THEY TURN OUT THINKERS, NOT INTELLECTUAL MACHINES. IT HAS BEEN OUR HABIT TO SEND OUR BOYS TO EUROPE TO PUT THE FINISHING TOUCHES ON THEM. THIS HAS BEEN OUR MISTAKE. IT IS OVER THERE WHERE THEY SHOULD HAVE THE FOUNDATION LAID. THE SUPERIORITY IN EDUCATION COMES IN THE PREPARATORY AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

In this country a young man goes to college for one of two reasons. He has either a definite plan in view or he goes because his father went before him.

It is all in LAYING THE FOUNDATION. In this country the boy's book is a fetish. In Europe it is a tool. It is a means to an end. Here our boys have a lesson to learn. They study it in a perfunctory manner without regard to what has gone before. When they have finished the book THEY PROCEED TO FORGET IT. Over there they study a book until they have MASTERED IT, all the while getting the culture and breadth of view. They are grounded in the fundamentals. The training draws out what is in a boy.

While being educated the boy is TAUGHT RESPECT AND OBEDIENCE TO HIS ELDERS. You take the average child here living in a hotel. He goes to the table with his parents, and the first thing he does is to grab the menu and forget entirely that he has a father or mother until reminded that they, too, have come to the table to eat. In Europe a boy hands the menu to his father. When out walking, if they come to a gate, the boy opens it and waits for his father to pass. In all those little attentions the boys there are letter perfect. Here the American youth is sadly lacking in all of them.

Poetry For Today

IF.

If smooth were the paths
That we journey along,
And bright were the skies
And the air sweet with song,
If never a cloud
Hid the light of the sun,
Then winning a battle
Would not be much fun.

If love were but wooing
And winning a maid,
And no one of losing
Were ever afraid,
If frowns never hurt us
And quarrels never came,
Then loving would really
Be dreary and tame.

If life were all getting
And keeping for aye,
If there were no losses
To meet on the way,
No sadness to blend
With the gladness we know,
We'd hunger for something
Our courage to show.

THE JUDICIARY LAW.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has held, wisely it seems to the people generally throughout the state, that the Green non-partisan judicial ballot law is constitutional. The Court by the decision which was announced on Thursday, holds simply that, in enacting that law, the legislature did not fracture any constitutional provisions and did not exceed any of the limitations imposed on it by the constitution.

Most people in the state never entertained any doubt on that proposition.

The people have insisted for years that, if possible, the judiciary should be taken out of politics.

Under the old law which required that the names of candidates for judicial positions should be placed on the party ticket under the party emblem, instances have not been rare enough when unfit men were swept into judicial positions on party land-slides, or slipped in by virtue of a heavy dominant party vote.

These regrettable election accidents occurred entirely too frequently to suit the people of the state, and not a few regular party nominees were defeated by independent candidates. The frequency with which the people sought insurance from the curse of unfit men in judicial position by resort to the Independent ticket was but the forerunner of a demand that all candidates for judicial positions, should have their names printed on a separate ballot on which was absent all party designation and on which the names of the candidates were to be rotated.

This demand grew to such proportions that planks favoring it were placed in party platforms and the enactment of the Green non-partisan ballot law, as it is called, followed.

Upon just what legal technicality it could be claimed that the constitution of the state forbade the enforcement of a law which comes nearer than anything yet suggested to taking the judiciary out of politics, is a matter in which the average citizen is not interested.

Nearly every conscientious voter in the state believes it a good law and would have been disappointed in a decision which denied to the people the right to have such a law.

It is a little singular that the Supreme Court divided, three for holding the law constitutional and two for holding it invalid. It is worthy of note too that the three were Democrats and the two were Republicans.

This year when the trend seems to be toward the Democratic standards it would seem that selfish political interest would have dictated just the reverse of the division which occurred.

It would seem that neither the two members of the Court who concluded that the law was invalid nor the three who held it valid were influenced by selfish political motives.

The ruling meets with popular approval. The people do not take kindly, these days, to having the courts limit too rigidly their power to legislate.

Respect and Obedience Are Unknown to Our Youth

By Dr. WILLIAM H. TOLMAN,

Director of the American Museum of Safety

SENT my son abroad to be educated because there are three things he can learn there that he can't learn here—to study, to be respectful and to be obedient. RESPECT AND OBEDIENCE PARTICULARLY ARE UNKNOWN TO THE AMERICAN YOUTH.

BY THE THOROUGHNESS OF THE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM ABROAD THEY TURN OUT THINKERS, NOT INTELLECTUAL MACHINES. IT HAS BEEN OUR HABIT TO SEND OUR BOYS TO EUROPE TO PUT THE FINISHING TOUCHES ON THEM. THIS HAS BEEN OUR MISTAKE. IT IS OVER THERE WHERE THEY SHOULD HAVE THE FOUNDATION LAID. THE SUPERIORITY IN EDUCATION COMES IN THE PREPARATORY AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

In this country a young man goes to college for one of two reasons. He has either a definite plan in view or he goes because his father went before him.

It is all in LAYING THE FOUNDATION. In this country the boy's book is a fetish. In Europe it is a tool. It is a means to an end. Here our boys have a lesson to learn. They study it in a perfunctory manner without regard to what has gone before. When they have finished the book THEY PROCEED TO FORGET IT. Great Activity Great Big At Y. M. C. A. Degree Staff

Beginning Saturday night the Y. M. C. A. building will close at ten o'clock instead of at a later hour as has been the custom during the summer. This will be done owing to the fact that the baths, during the cool weather, have not been used after ten o'clock.

Commencing Sunday afternoon the lobby will be open from two to five o'clock during the winter, and vesper services will be held each Sunday afternoon from 4 to 4:30 o'clock. M. E. Hitchcock having charge of the first services. On the last Sunday in each month a mass meeting will be held.

The night school which opens Tuesday, October 15th promises to become very popular, and a great many have made inquiries and announced their intention of attending. The cost will be very low and competent instructors will be in charge of the work.

During the past week three new Bible classes have been organized and are starting off nicely, the first being taught by Rev. P. J. Hennes, the second by Secretary Zander and the third by Ralph Strobel.

The gym classes have been growing rapidly, and one class of young men numbers more than thirty, all enjoying the work and being very enthusiastic over it.

The baths and pool are increasing in popularity, and the entire Y. M. C. A. is becoming more and more popular each day.

Since school has opened and the two large class rooms up-stairs are devoted to the instruction of a large number of pupils, the big building has taken on an added activity that is quite noticeable.

Plans are under way for a novel Hallowe'en celebration, probably including a masquerade with all of the supernatural trimmings that usually mark hallowe'en events.

A Seven-cent Supper

On the seventh instant, without fail, will be held the Queen Esther seven cent sale.

The doors of the M. E. church are wide and for seven cents you may go inside.

Your fortune told for seven cents, and other attractions at same expense. And every luckiest seventh one may go in free and see the fun.

So remember, every one, we pray, at seven o'clock on the seventh day of this present month, come wet or dry. Please gather to laugh and talk and buy.—Adv.

"Graustark" Coming

"Graustark", the play that proved such a popular hit with Washington citizens two years ago, has been booked for appearance at the Empire Opera House on November 13th.

There's a great time coming in Odd Fellow circles in this part of the state, and it will be held in this city on Tuesday, October 22, when a class of 15 to 20 candidates will be given the last degree, the noted Imperial Degree Staff conferring the work.

The work will be the first given by the improved Imperial staff, which now consists of 75 members, with complete new paraphernalia costing $2500, and the event will probably be the greatest in local Odd Fellow history, as representatives from 35 different lodges are expected, and the grand officers will be here, so that from 500 to 700 persons are expected to witness the work.

As the new hall will be entirely too small to hold the big crowd, the third floor of Memorial hall has been leased, and will be used for conferring the rank.

It will be a gala occasion for the local lodge of Odd Fellows, and elaborate preparations are under way to properly entertain the guests, and show them the finest first degree work they have ever witnessed, and all who attend will be given a rare feast in the superb work of the monster team.

Fayette lodge now consists of 375 members, and it is the only lodge in a city the size of Washington in the world that can boast a degree staff of 75 members, for there are few degree staffs in the larger cities which contain over 50 or 60 members.

Bad Man Arrested After Lively Chase

Henry Dunson notified the police Friday morning about 7:30 that unless they came after Homer Bryant, colored, a relative of his, that the undertaker would have to take Bryant away, so Chief McCoy and special patrolman, Palmer, hurried to Dunson's home on Fourth street to catch the offending man.

When Bryant saw the police coming he made a bolt for freedom and soon outdistanced Chief McCoy, but Palmer gave chase and after running Bryant through a corn field, captured him a quarter of a mile from the starting point.

Bryant was brought to the city lock-up and jugged to await his arraignment on a probable charge of drunk and disorderly conduct.

Bryant is from Hillsboro and is said to have a very bad reputation at that place. At Greenfield, while locked up on a charge of drunkenness he succeeded in forcing his way out and making his escape, but when the Greenfield authorities were notified they were not anxious to have him returned.

A story that will reach the heart.

Received News Of Brother's Death

Mrs. C. E. Page received a telegram from Toledo Friday morning, stating that her brother, Mr. Geo. W. Irwin, a veteran of the Civil war, had died in a hospital in Toledo, last night.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced, but interment will probably be made at Frankfort.

Great Activity Great Big At Y. M. C. A. Degree Staff

Beginning Saturday night the Y. M. C. A. building will close at ten o'clock instead of at a later hour as has been the custom during the summer. This will be done owing to the fact that the baths, during the cool weather, have not been used after ten o'clock.

Commencing Sunday afternoon the lobby will be open from two to five o'clock during the winter, and vesper services will be held each Sunday afternoon from 4 to 4:30 o'clock, M. E. Hitchcock having charge of the first services. On the last Sunday in each month a mass meeting will be held.

The night school which opens Tuesday, October 15th promises to become very popular, and a great many have made inquiries and announced their intention of attending. The cost will be very low and competent instructors will be in charge of the work.

During the past week three new Bible classes have been organized and are starting off nicely, the first being taught by Rev. P. J. Hennessy, the second by Secretary Zaner and the third by Ralph Strobel.

The gym classes have been growing rapidly, and one class of young men numbers more than thirty, all enjoying the work and being very enthusiastic over it.

The baths and pool are increasing in popularity, and the entire Y. M. C. A. is becoming more and more popular each day.

Since school has opened and the two large class rooms up-stairs are devoted to the instruction of a large number of pupils, the big building has taken on an added activity that is quite noticeable.

Plans are under way for a novel Halloween celebration, probably including a masquerade with all of the supernatural trimmings that usually mark halloween events.

A Seven-cent Supper

On the seventh instant, without fail, will be held the Queen Esther seven cent sale.

The doors of the M. E. church are wide and for seven cents you may go inside.

Your fortune told for seven cents, and other attractions at same expense. And every luckiest seventh one may go in free and see the fun.

So remember, every one, we pray, at seven o'clock on the seventh day of this present month, come wet or dry. Please gather to laugh and talk and buy.—Adv.

"Graustark" Coming

"Graustark", the play that proved such a popular hit with Washington citizens two years ago, has been booked for appearance at the Empire Opera House on November 13th.

There's a great time coming in Odd Fellow circles in this part of the state, and it will be held in this city on Tuesday, October 22, when a class of 15 to 20 candidates will be given the last degree, the noted Imperial Degree Staff conferring the work.

The work will be the first given by the improved Imperial staff, which now consists of 75 members, with complete new paraphernalia costing $2500, and the event will probably be the greatest in local Odd Fellow history, as representatives from 35 different lodges are expected, and the grand officers will be here, so that from 500 to 700 persons are expected to witness the work.

As the new hall will be entirely too small to hold the big crowd, the third floor of Memorial hall has been leased, and will be used for conferring the rank.

It will be a gala occasion for the local lodge of Odd Fellows, and elaborate preparations are under way to properly entertain the guests, and show them the finest first degree work they have ever witnessed, and all who attend will be given a rare feast in the superb work of the monster team.

Fayette lodge now consists of 375 members, and it is the only lodge in a city the size of Washington in the world that can boast a degree staff of 75 members, for there are few degree staffs in the larger cities which contain over 50 or 60 members.

Bad Man Arrested After Lively Chase

Henry Dunson notified the police Friday morning about 7:30 that unless they came after Homer Bryant, colored, a relative of his, that the undertaker would have to take Bryant away, so Chief McCoy and special patrolman, Palmer, hurried to Dunson's home on Fourth street to catch the offending man.

When Bryant saw the police coming he made a bolt for freedom and soon outdistanced Chief McCoy, but Palmer gave chase and after running Bryant through a corn field, captured him a quarter of a mile from the starting point.

Bryant was brought to the city lock-up and juggled to await his arraignment on a probable charge of drunk and disorderly conduct.

Bryant is from Hillsboro and is said to have a very bad reputation at that place. At Greenfield, while locked up on a charge of drunkenness he succeeded in forcing his way out and making his escape, but when the Greenfield authorities were notified they were not anxious to have him returned.

Plea Of Moosers

Court Will Hear It When There is an Agreed Statement of Facts.

Columbus, O., Oct. 4. — Ohio Progressives, whose candidates on county, congressional and legislative tickets were ruled off the ballot where duplication of names occurred, by Secretary of State Graves, sought to carry to the supreme court an appeal from the ruling. They asked leave to file a petition in mandamus to compel the state secretary to permit the printing of candidates' names twice, which Graves held illegal. The court, however, refused to proceed with the case unless there was an agreed statement of facts. An effort will be made to reach such an agreement.

Mr. Jas. V. Churchill, 90 Wall St., Auburn, N. Y., has been bothered with serious kidney and bladder trouble ever since he left the army, and says: "I decided to try Foley Kidney Pills as they had cured so many people and I soon found they were just the thing. My kidneys and bladder are again in a healthy condition. I gladly recommend them." Many an old soldier has never recovered the effects of army life. Foley Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results. The genuine in a yellow package. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists.

Auto Strikes Trolley Pole.

Columbus, O., Oct. 4. — M. J. Murphy, a foreman at the Ralston steel car works, was seriously injured when an automobile in which he and three friends returning from the Elks' club struck an interurban trolley pole at the northern city limits. The car was driven by H. E. Tesseyman, general manager of the Ralston company. He was slightly injured.

Archbold Served.

New York Oct. 4. — John D. Archbold, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, was met at the pier by process servers upon his arrival from Europe and subpoenaed to appear before the commissioner in the Waters-Pierce-Standard Oil hearings here.

Aviator Badly Injured.

Sparta, Ill., Oct. 4. — At the Randolph county fair 15,000 persons saw Bob Bleakley of the Benoist Aircraft company of St. Louis fall in his aeroplane while making his descent. The allersons went to pieces and he was dashed to the ground with great force, the aeroplane falling on top of him. He was picked up unconscious and taken to a hotel, where he was found to be badly scalded, but no bones were broken.

CHARGE OF LEWIS DENIED BY BROWN

Latter Claims Former Made Demand For $5,000.

Columbus, O., Oct. 4. — Chairman Walter F. Brown of the Progressive state committee issued a statement, declaring that Lewellyn Lewis, a state labor leader, had demanded of him last spring $5,000 as a consideration whereby his brother, Tom L. Lewis, former head of the United Mine Workers of America, would become a candidate for Roosevelt delegate to the Republican national convention last spring in the Sixteenth district.

Two weeks ago Lewellyn Lewis made a statement saying that Mr. Brown had offered to put up $5,000 to get Tom L. Lewis to make the race. Tom L. Lewis is now Republican candidate for secretary of state. He vigorously supports his brother's statement.

Mrs. Paul Wehling, 316 Smith St., Peoria, Ill., had kidney and bladder trouble, with terrible backache and pain across the hips. Just imagine her condition. She further says: "I was also very nervous, had headaches and dizzy spells, and was fast getting worse when I took Foley Kidney Pills, and now all my troubles are cured. Foley Kidney Pills have done so much for me I shall always recommend them." Foley Kidney Pills are rich in curative qualities and contain no habit forming drugs. Try them. OHIO HAPPENINGS

Nonpartisan Judiciary Law Valid.
Columbus, O., Oct. 4. — The nonpartisan judiciary law was held constitutional by the Ohio supreme court. The three Democrats on the Ohio supreme bench — Judges Donahue, Johnson and O'Hara — saying the day for the law. The two Republican members — Judges Shannock and Davis — voted to declare it unconstitutional. Judge Speer, Republican, did not sit in the case, being a candidate for re-election. Three votes were necessary to declare the law unconstitutional and four to declare it constitutional.

Rules Against Carbolic Acid.
Columbus, O., Oct. 4. — Carbolic acid may not be sold by others than registered pharmacists or their assistants, according to a ruling of the attorney general's office to the state board of pharmacy, which reported that its agents had purchased a four-ounce bottle of the acid, fully labeled, at a grocery store. The statute specifies that certain household remedies may be generally sold, but the attorney general held that carbolic acid was of too dangerous a nature.

Business Man Electrocuted.
Youngstown, O., Oct. 4. — Charles Mowrey, 30, well-known business man, was electrocuted here in his office. He died in his wife's arms. Mrs. Mowrey joined her husband to go home with him. When he clasped the wire guard inclosing an incandescent with one hand and sought to switch off the current with the other the current shot through his body, producing almost instantaneous death.

Church Merger Likely.
Upper Sandusky, O., Oct. 4. — That the Presbyterian and Reformed churches will be consolidated within five years was predicted at the session of the Ohio synod of the Reformed church at Sycamore, by the Rev. E. A. Rogers, a Presbyterian minister of Bowling Green, who discussed the subject. Mulberry, Ind., was selected as the place for holding the next synod.

Shoplifting Charged.
Cleveland, O., Oct. 4. — Charged with shoplifting from the jewelry store of Bert Ramsey, Miss Pearl Hale and Mrs. F. A. Long were arraigned before Municipal Judge Levine, pleaded not guilty and their cases were continued. They were arrested when Miss Nora Kavanagh, a clerk in the store, said she saw them pick up some diamond cuff links and studs.

Foraker to Stump the State.
Columbus, O., Oct. 4. — Ex-Senator J. B. Foraker will get into the Republican state campaign after all. In a letter to General Brown he says that he will be able to do some work in the campaign. He is now dated to speak at Reithel on Oct. 5 and Wadsworth Oct. 12 and at Xenia on Oct. 10. Other dates will probably be arranged for him.

Mrs. Peter Holan, 11501 Buckeye Rd., Cleveland, O., says: "Yes, indeed I can recommend Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. My little boy had a bad case of whooping cough, some times he was blue in the face. I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and it had a remarkable effect and cured him in a short time." Remember the name, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and do not accept any substitute. Children like it, grown folks are quickly helped by it, and it contains no opiates. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists.

JURY HEARS FEDERAL SIDE

Trial of Defendants in the Dynamite Case Now Under Way.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 4. — When the selection of the 12 men who will sit as jurors to try the 46 defendants in the dynamiting cases in the federal court had been completed, District Attorney Miller delivered the presentation of the government's side of the case. He read the indictment and told the jury what the government would prove, pointing out the part that each of the defendants had taken in carrying out the alleged conspiracy.

With the 500-page indictment in hand, Mr. Miller read the charge of conspiracy. He explained to the jury that the defendants are not charged with the overt act of dynamiting, but are charged with violating the federal laws against carrying explosives on passenger trains and without it being protected from accidental explosion.

Federal Judge Albert Anderson made a ruling to the effect that not only evidence of the alleged illegal interstate shipment of dynamite and nitroglycerin, but also evidence as to what was done with the explosives will be admitted at the trial.

Registration in Ohio Cities.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 4. — The largest registration in the city's history for a first day was recorded here, 42,900 being enrolled. Cleveland shows a gain of 6,000 over the first day four years ago. Columbus reports a registration far behind that of the first day last year, and a loss compared with the first day in 1908. Both Toledo and Dayton report heavy registrations.

YOUR COAL PROBLEM SOLVED
No need to worry about your winter's coal bill if you use the
ESTATE HOT STORM
It burns any grade of soft coal in a highly successful manner, through the use of the Estate Hot Blast and Hot Air Circulating Systems, the greatest improvements ever made in a soft coal stove.
It heats by both radiation and hot air circulation, producing practically double the heat that is secured with ordinary coal stoves from the same amount of fuel.
By putting in coal once a day or two a steady fire from the time it is put up in the fall till taken down in the spring can be kept with but little attention and absolutely without smoke and gas escaping into the room.
You get this decidedly superior service, this demonstrable fuel economy, for the price of an ordinary stove. An examination will convince you.

DEVAULT.

Cora Devault, aged 37 years, wife of James Devault, died Thursday at 3 p. m., at her residence on Forest street. Funeral services will be held Saturday at one o'clock at the residence. Burial will be made in Washington cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS. NELSON MADDUX

After an illness of three months, Mrs. Nelson Maddux passed quietly away Thursday at midnight at her home near town on the Wilmington pike.

Mrs. Maddux was sixty-three years of age and leaves her husband D. Maddux, of Reddick, Ill.; John, and seven children, five sons, Dr. E. George, Carson and Sam, and two daughters, Miss Frances and Mrs. G. M. Anderson, of Marianville, Neb.

The daughters have been visiting their mother, but thinking her condition greatly improved were with friends in Athens at the time of her death.

A woman devoted to her family, and much interested in her church, Mrs. Maddux's death is an incomparable loss to both home and church, and will also cause regret among many sympathizing friends.

The funeral services will be conducted by Mrs. Maddux's pastor, Rev. Hostetler, at the Christian church Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

WANT TO FEEL YOUNG?

It's Olive Tablets For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation, it develops from just a few constipated days, especially in Old People, unless you take yourself in hand.

Coax the jaded bowel muscles back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics.

Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistency and Nature's assistance.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets oil the bowels; their action is gentle, yet positive. There is never any pain or griping when Olive Tablets are used. Just the kind of treatment old persons should have.

Take Olive Tablets mixed with olive oil and have no trouble with your bowels or stomach.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box.

ORDER IN THE COURT.—Judge Casey has a busy morning of it and so do the counsellors, who find themselves in a wrangle over the judge's decisions from the very beginning. He has a pathetic case where a boy stole bread for his mother; a drunk, who came practically in the arms of two policemen; a young lady shoplifter who sets the hearts of the entire court, including the judge, in a flutter, and two prize fighters who have been caught in the act of breaking the boxing law. The latter case is of intense interest to Judge Casey, for he prides himself on being a bit of a boxer himself. Upon the promise of acquittal, if they will give an exhibition bout in court to determine whether or not they broke the law, the boys have a one-round bout that is excitement from start to finish. At the finish the judge, policemen and lawyers get too close in their interested way, and each in turn receives a knockout blow from the boxers, so that the boys are enabled to leave court comparatively unmolested.

THE PUPILS

Who have called their teacher's attention to the offer of The Buckeye State Building and Loan Company, Rankin Building, 22 West Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio, have been made happy by the receipt of a copy of "Old Favorite Songs." All that the company requests is the name and correct postoffice address of one of the parents of the pupils. On getting these addresses we send to each a copy of these splendid songs.
Assets $5,900,000. Five per cent. paid on time deposits.
